

Christmas Holiday

The twenty-first of December was the start of my Christmas Holidays. My favourite day was Boxing Day on the twenty-sixth of December.

My aunt came to visit us. She comes to Hong Kong once every two years. At the same time, my grandma (my mum's mother) came to Hong Kong too. On the twenty-fifth, we went out for dinner with my cousin Vanessa, but my grandma didn't come. After dinner, my sister said, 'I wish we could have a sleepover at Vanessa's home.' My dad said to her, 'Yes, you can.' So we did. Since we did not bring our clothes, we had to wear her clothes. After our showers, my sister let me play with her phone. I then realised that Vanessa was watching something interesting so I joined her. My sister came too.

It was Boxing Day today. I received one present, but my cousin got three presents. I got a bow plus three arrows for my gift!

I had the best Christmas holiday ever!

My Christmas Holiday

In the Christmas Holiday, my family and I went to Shen Zhen. In the afternoon, we went there by high-speed rail.

After we arrived, we went to the hotel by taxi and then went to the toyshop. There were a lot of toys and other things too. I brought a small chair and some New Year scrolls. I felt very happy.

My family and I went back to the hotel together to sleep.

I had a nice day!
