Book Review

Book title: The Giving Tree

Author: Shel Silverstein

The Giving Tree is an imaginary story about human beings and selfless love.

At the beginning, the boy came to the tree every day. The tree was happy. As the boy grew older, he wanted more and more from the tree and the tree gave him her apples, branches and her trunk. The tree was left with an old stump. In the end, the boy come back as an old man. The boy didn't ask for anything, instead, he stayed with the tree. The tree was happy again.

This book is very meaningful. The tree was my favourite character because she loved the boy very much and she was happy to do anything for him. If I were the boy I would stay with the tree and love her more because the boy was selfish and always taking. I have learnt to cherish the love from everyone around me. I recommend this book to my friends because this book is meaningful and it is perfect for all ages.

My Dream Job

When I grow up, I want to be a vet. I first learnt about vets in a book about helping animals. I think it is a very difficult job.

I want to be a vet because I like animals. I like helping them and I love to read books about pets.

If I become a vet, I'll open an animal clinic. I will meet sick animals every day and learn about what is inside the sick animals' bodies.

Vets need to be brave so that they won't be afraid of blood. They need to be calm too so that they can do surgery every day. They need to be caring so that they can listen to people's problems and help their pets.

I am going to study hard so that my dream can come true. I am going to read more books about pets. I am going to practise my communication skill so that I can talk to people.

I hope I can be the best vet in Hong Kong. I will try my best to make my dream come true.
