

My Favourite Festival

Good morning. I'm Chan Ka Hei, Cyrus. Today I'm going to talk about my favourite festival, La Tomatina.

La Tomatina is celebrated in the Valencian town of Bunol, in the east of Spain. It is celebrated on the last Wednesday in August.

At La Tomatina people usually eat Paella. Paella originated in Valencia which is very close to Bunol. The dish is made with meat, rice and vegetables cooked together in a large pan. There are three different types of Paellas named Seafood Paella, Valencia Paella and Mixed Paella. They also eat tomatoes and ham as it is what tomatoes are eaten with normally. Also, the people that go to the festival drink beer, wine, liquor and soft drinks.

On that day, people get a lot of tomatoes and throw them at each other and there is a giant tomato fight. The tomatoes are thrown just because it is fun. I like the tomato fight because it is exciting.

I enjoyed the tomato fight to celebrate this festival last year because it was exciting and special. Also, the paella was delicious and unique, and I enjoyed the atmosphere very much.

Thank you for listening. I hope you enjoyed my presentation.

My Favourite Festival

Good morning, I'm Milton Leung. Today I'm going to talk about my favourite festival, the Oktoberfest.

The Oktoberfest is celebrated from 1st September to the last day of October. It is celebrated in Munich.

There is a lot of food that is eaten in the Oktoberfest. Roasted meat like roast chicken, roast pork and roast ham hock is eaten in the Oktoberfest.

I like the Oktoberfest because there are a lot of activities. Beer is drunk by people who are older than eighteen. Bavarian music is played. The Bavarian clothes, dirndls and lederhosen are worn at this festival.

My favourite activity of the festival is the playing of traditional music. They play traditional Bavarian music. I like the rhythm so much. They drink beer as well, but I'm not older than eighteen so I can't drink beer. I like seeing people wearing Bavarian clothes as well. They would look good on me if I could ever wear one.

My second favourite festival is La Tomatina. It is celebrated in Valencia on the last Wednesday of August.

Tomatoes are eaten by Spaniards. They all think eating tomatoes brings good luck.

Tomatoes are thrown because they think throwing tomatoes brings good luck as well.

My favourite activity of La Tomatina is the tomato throwing event. It is fun and messy. That's why I like it.

Thank you very much for listening. I hope you enjoyed my presentation.
