My Dream Pet

My dream pet is a rabbit. This is because the rabbit is a cute and tame animal. I will call it Co Co.

Co Co has long ears, small eyes, a small mouth, a fat body, soft white fur and a short tail. It is adorable.

Co Co likes to eat apples and grass, but Co Co likes to eat carrots best.

Co Co can jump up high and is so shy it likes to hide under my bed. It likes to play with me.

I want to have a rabbit as my pet because it is playful and my mother was born in the Year of the Rabbit. So I would love it very much.

I can design a beautiful and comfortable house for Co Co. I can make a colourful box for it.

Finally, Ken and Pam see the house is untidy. Ken tells Pam to do the housework together. Ken folds the clothes. Pam sweeps the floor. Mrs. Chan feels happy. She says, "Good job, children".
