A Day Trip to Cheung Chau

In the morning, we will go to North Lookout Pavilion. We will go hiking there and look at the beautiful view of Lantau. I love hiking because it is good for health and we can take beautiful photos. Then we will go to Cheung Po Tsai Cave. We will go inside to have an adventure. After that, we will have lunch in a famous restaurant. I hope we can get a seat there.

In the afternoon, we will go to Tung Wan Beach. We will have a swim in the sea. We will sunbathe and look at the beautiful view. It will be enjoyable.

In the evening, we will tour around the island. We will rent a two-seat tricycle. We will take some photos and enjoy the night view. Then, we will eat seafood at a restaurant along the waterfront. We will eat fried squid and fish or scallops and prawns. I believe it will be delicious and yummy.
