A Story about a Crime I Saw in a Book Shop

Yesterday, I encountered a crime in a book shop. It was Sunday and I went shopping with mum. We were shopping when I remembered that I wanted to buy some new story books.

"Mum, can we buy some new books from the new bookshop on the 5th floor, please?" At first mum didn't agree, but after a few times begging and requesting, she finally agreed. We went to the bookshop.

There were many kinds of books in the shop. It was very quiet and the staff were very polite. I was choosing some books to buy when I saw something out of the corner of my eye. An old man took a book from the shelf and read it. As soon as he finished, he hid it in his bag just as if it was his own book. Then he took another book and stuffed it into his bag again! But nobody noticed it!

The old man was going away, but I wouldn't let him go. I shouted "A thief! A thief!" The old man heard it and ran. But the staff managed to catch him and found the two books. The staff thanked me and gave me a coupon.

At last, I finally bought some books with the coupon and went home. Yesterday was really an exciting day!

A Robbery

Last Thursday evening, there was a robbery in the most famous restaurant in the city - Moon Restaurant. The cashier was taking orders from the customers on the phone when a robber rushed towards her. He took a knife and said, "Give me all your money or you'll be sorry!" The cashier, Doris, was really scared so she ran away. The manager heard everything but he was also too scared to move.

The robber was taking all the money from the cash register when the manager immediately set off the alarm. The police arrived when the robber sat on a motorbike. "Come back! You cannot escape!" The two officers actually had put a tracking device on the robber. So they asked two more officers, Officer Chan and Officer Chow, to follow the robber.

The other two officers went in front of him and said, "Halt!" "Never!" the robber said while rushing into a building. Unfortunately, there were a lot of stairs and the bag was too heavy. Soon, the policemen caught up with him.

Finally, the policemen arrested the robber and all the money was returned. The robber was ashamed. He sobbed, "My family is very poor. My mum is sick but I don't have money to buy medicine. No one would hire me so I have no choice but to rob. I'm sorry. I won't do it again." The robber was sorry about what he had done, but he was still sent to prison for three years.
