

The Best Christmas Eve I've Ever Had

On the 22nd December of 2018, my family and I went to Japan, Hokkaido. We arrived at the airport at 7:30am. We had a long flight but spent most of the time watching movies. At about 3:30pm, we landed in Hokkaido. We could see snow falling from the sky so I was very excited. After picking up our luggage, we met up with our friends that had arrived earlier. We ate some sushi which was delicious and carried on with our trip. We had a long train ride and finally arrived at Hoshino Resorts Tomamu, where the ski site was located.

The next two days, we went around the resort to take photos and explore. There was a big Christmas tree in the hall made of small presents. We also visited Chapel On The Water. It was where my dad proposed to my mum so it's very special to us.

On the 25th December, we started skiing. It wasn't our first time but we still took classes from the morning to the afternoon. The coaches were all very nice and I enjoyed the whole experience. At night, we went to a fancy restaurant to eat Shabu Shabu. There was a cozy fireplace too. But that wasn't the end. We rode on the hotel bus to the place "Mina-mina beach". It's a huge man-made "beach" with fake waves. There's also a sauna where we can look at the beautiful view. The best part is that you can make your own free shaved ice with flavours of your choice - yum!

My Best Friend

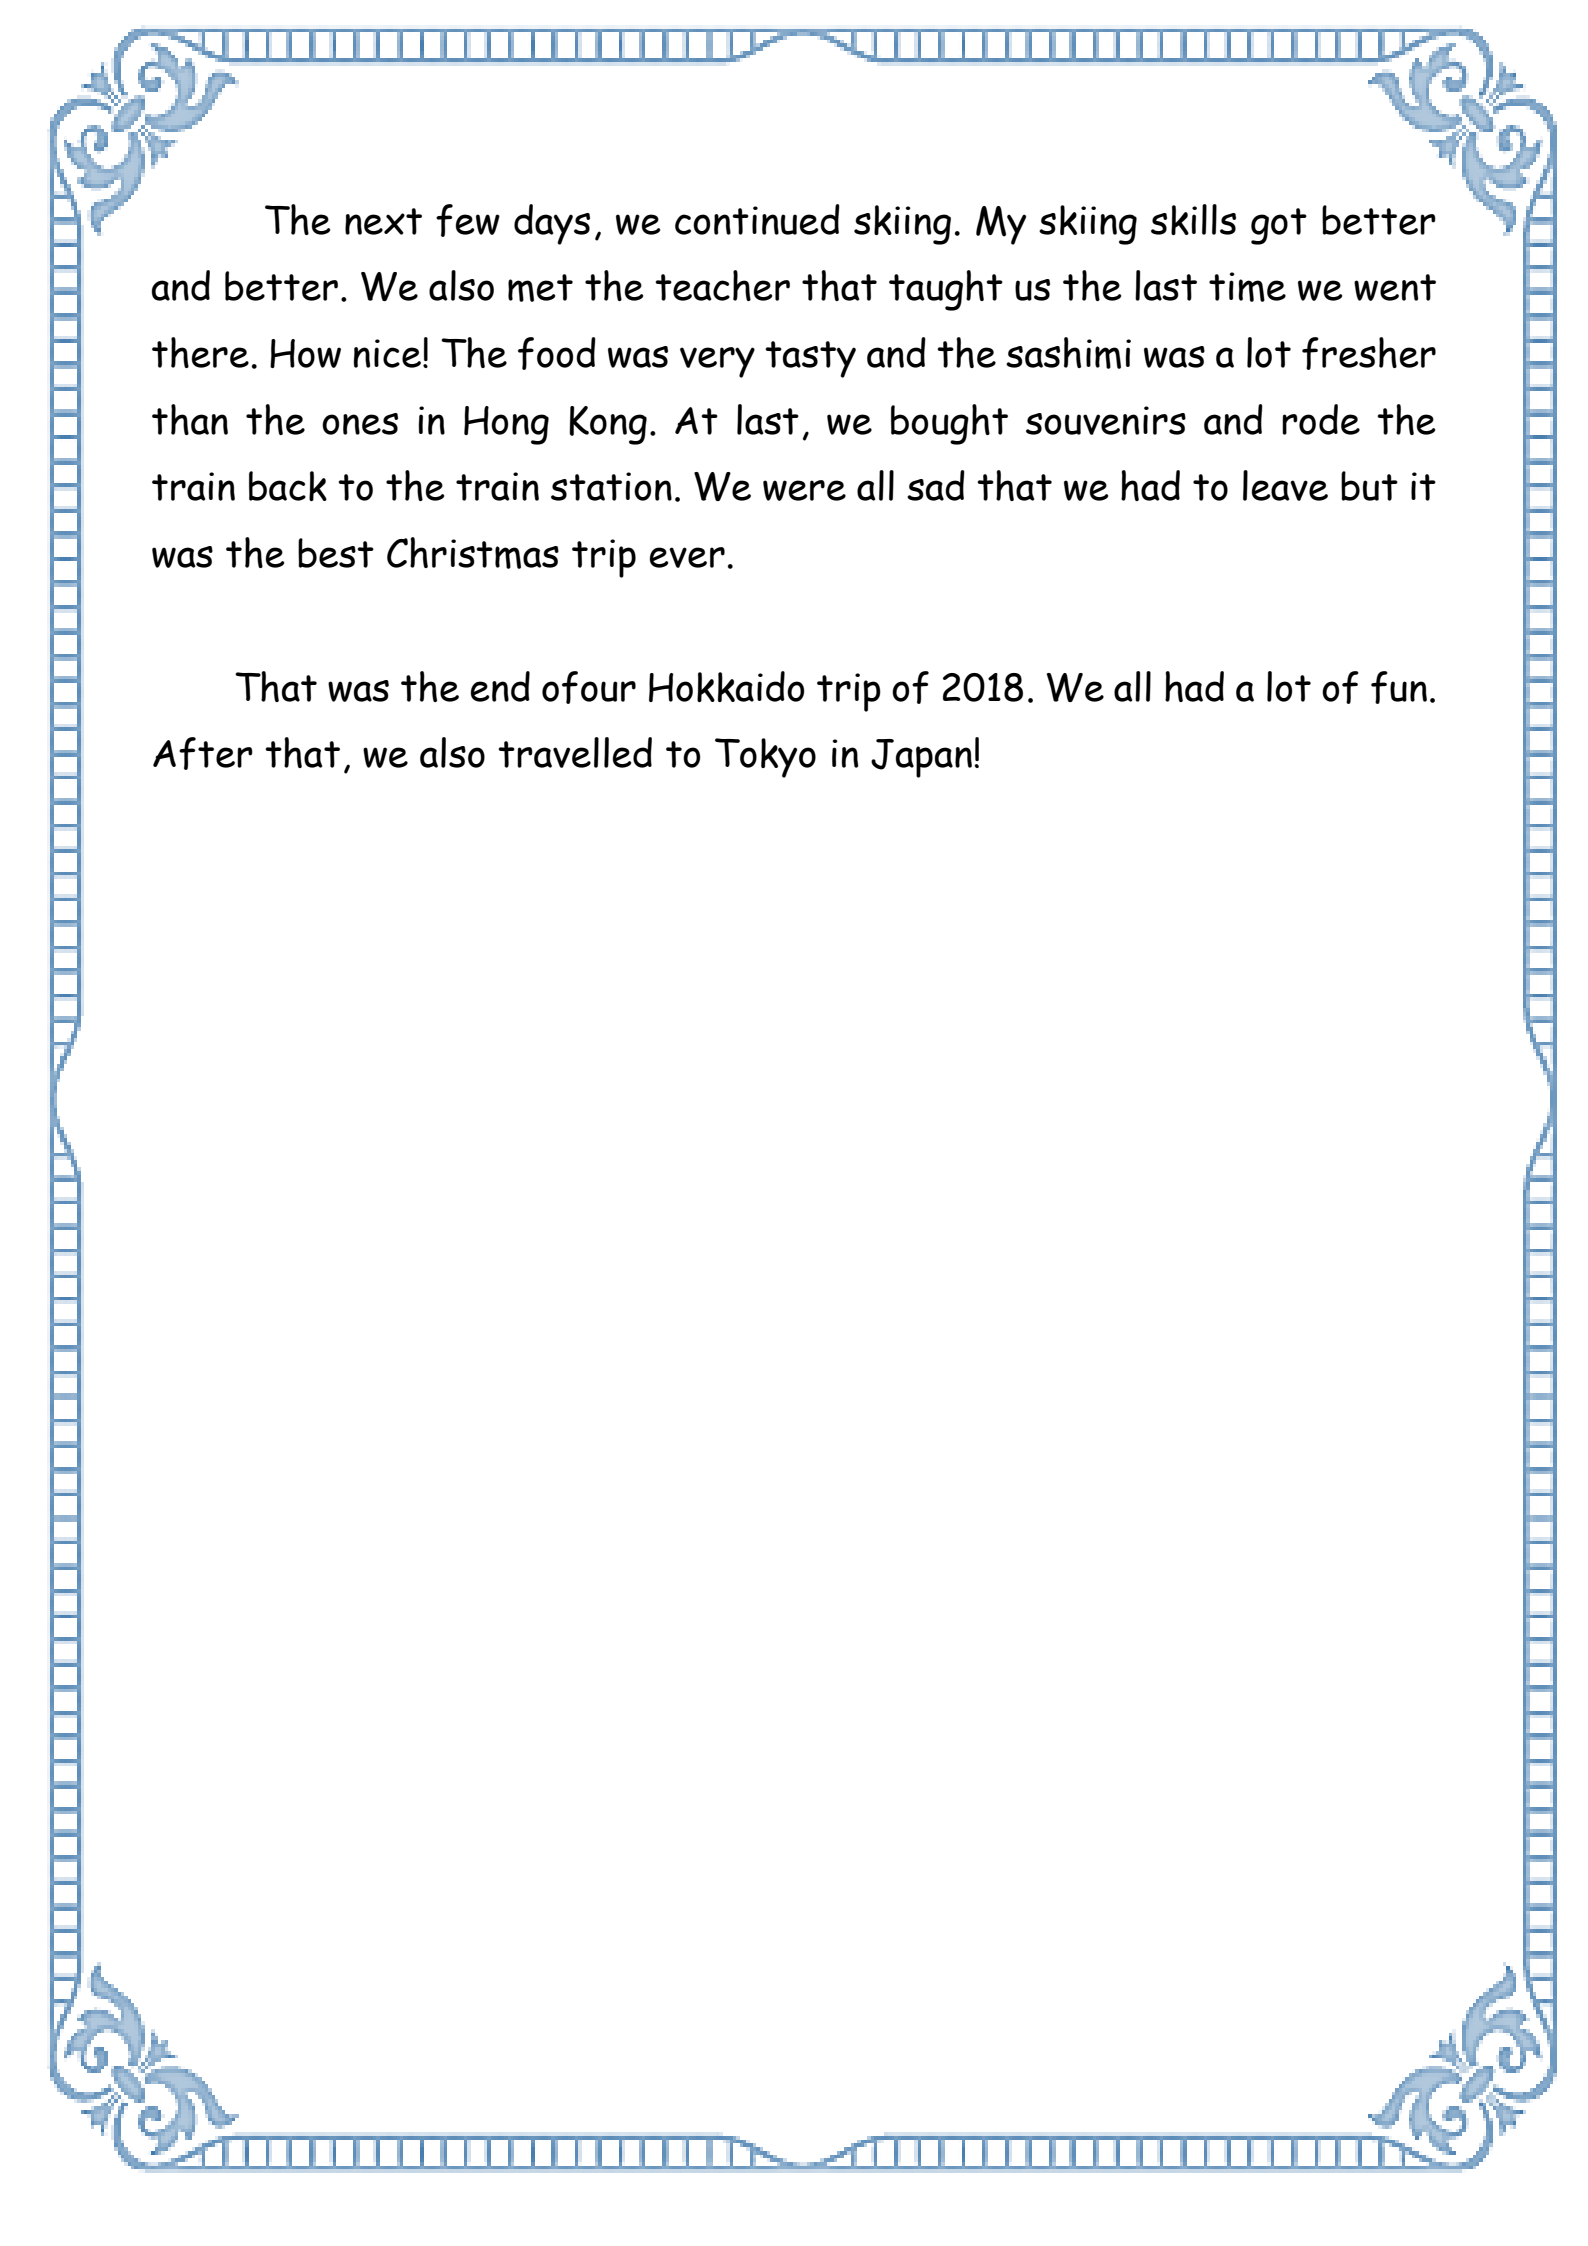

I have many good friends at school but my best friend is Issac. We are classmates. We have known each other for five years. Issac and I first met when I was in Primary Two. We sat next to each other and chatted with each other. We soon became friends with each other.

Issac is neither short or tall. He is very slim and he is the lightest boy in our class. Issac is very helpful. He always helps others if they are in need. Also, he does a lot of voluntary work to help the needy in the society. He is also very kind. He even treats those who treat him badly kindly. He is kind to everyone.

We are interested in the same hobbies. We both like reading, chatting and playing video games. We both like playing Brawl Stars - a mobile action game. We always play together as a team. It is so much fun! Also, Issac likes singing and I like playing the cello.

Issac is my best friend because he is very cheerful. With him around, I am always happy and never lonely. When I had an interview five months ago. I was very nervous. To support me, Issac even went with me to the secondary school. With his encouragement, I felt more relaxed and started to gain confidence.

I feel very lucky to have a friend like Issac. I hope our friendship can last forever.

The next few days, we continued skiing. My skiing skills got better and better. We also met the teacher that taught us the last time we went there. How nice! The food was very tasty and the sashimi was a lot fresher than the ones in Hong Kong. At last, we bought souvenirs and rode the train back to the train station. We were all sad that we had to leave but it was the best Christmas trip ever.

That was the end of our Hokkaido trip of 2018. We all had a lot of fun. After that, we also travelled to Tokyo in Japan!
