A Wonderful Trip

During the summer holidays in 2019, my parents took me and my brother to Chiang Mai in Thailand. We went there by plane.

We stayed in a five-star hotel. It was refreshing to swim in such hot weather as the temperature topped 40 degrees Celsius. I also celebrated my sixth birthday by having a buffet dinner there. We went on a safari to feed animals. It was the first time I have ever had close contact with giraffes and zebras. We took a lot of photos. Moreover, we went to the night market. I bought some magnets as souvenirs for my friends and relatives. Lastly, we took an Uber to famous temples.

Although Chiang Mai is an old city, I enjoyed the trip very much.

A Wonderful Trip

I went to Macau with my parents because it was my birthday. I went there by boat. Then we went to a hotel called The Ritz-Carlton by taxi.

Dad booked a hotel room for us. The manager upgraded us to a premium hotel room because it was my birthday. I was very excited to see the premium hotel room.

When we were at the premium hotel room, I put down my suitcase and rushed around the hotel room. Everything was more special than the normal hotel room.

Then we went to the lounge to have lunch. I had biscuits with cheese.
