

5R (2) Chan Cheuk Yui, Ringo

Making a Noticeboard

Have you ever thought of making your own noticeboard using recycled materials? Today I am going to teach you. For materials, you need a mooncake tin, some magazine pages and coloured paper. For tools, you need a piece of cardboard, a pencil, a pair of scissors and glue.

First, use a mooncake tin and a pencil to draw a rectangle on a piece of cardboard. This is the shape of the board. Then use a pair of scissors to cut out the rectangle from the cardboard. This is the noticeboard. After that, wrap the cardboard with coloured paper. Next, put the wrapped cardboard inside the mooncake tin. (Remember to clean the mooncake tin!) Finally cut some pictures from the magazines and use glue to stick them on the wrapped cardboard to decorate it. You need to press it until the glue dries.

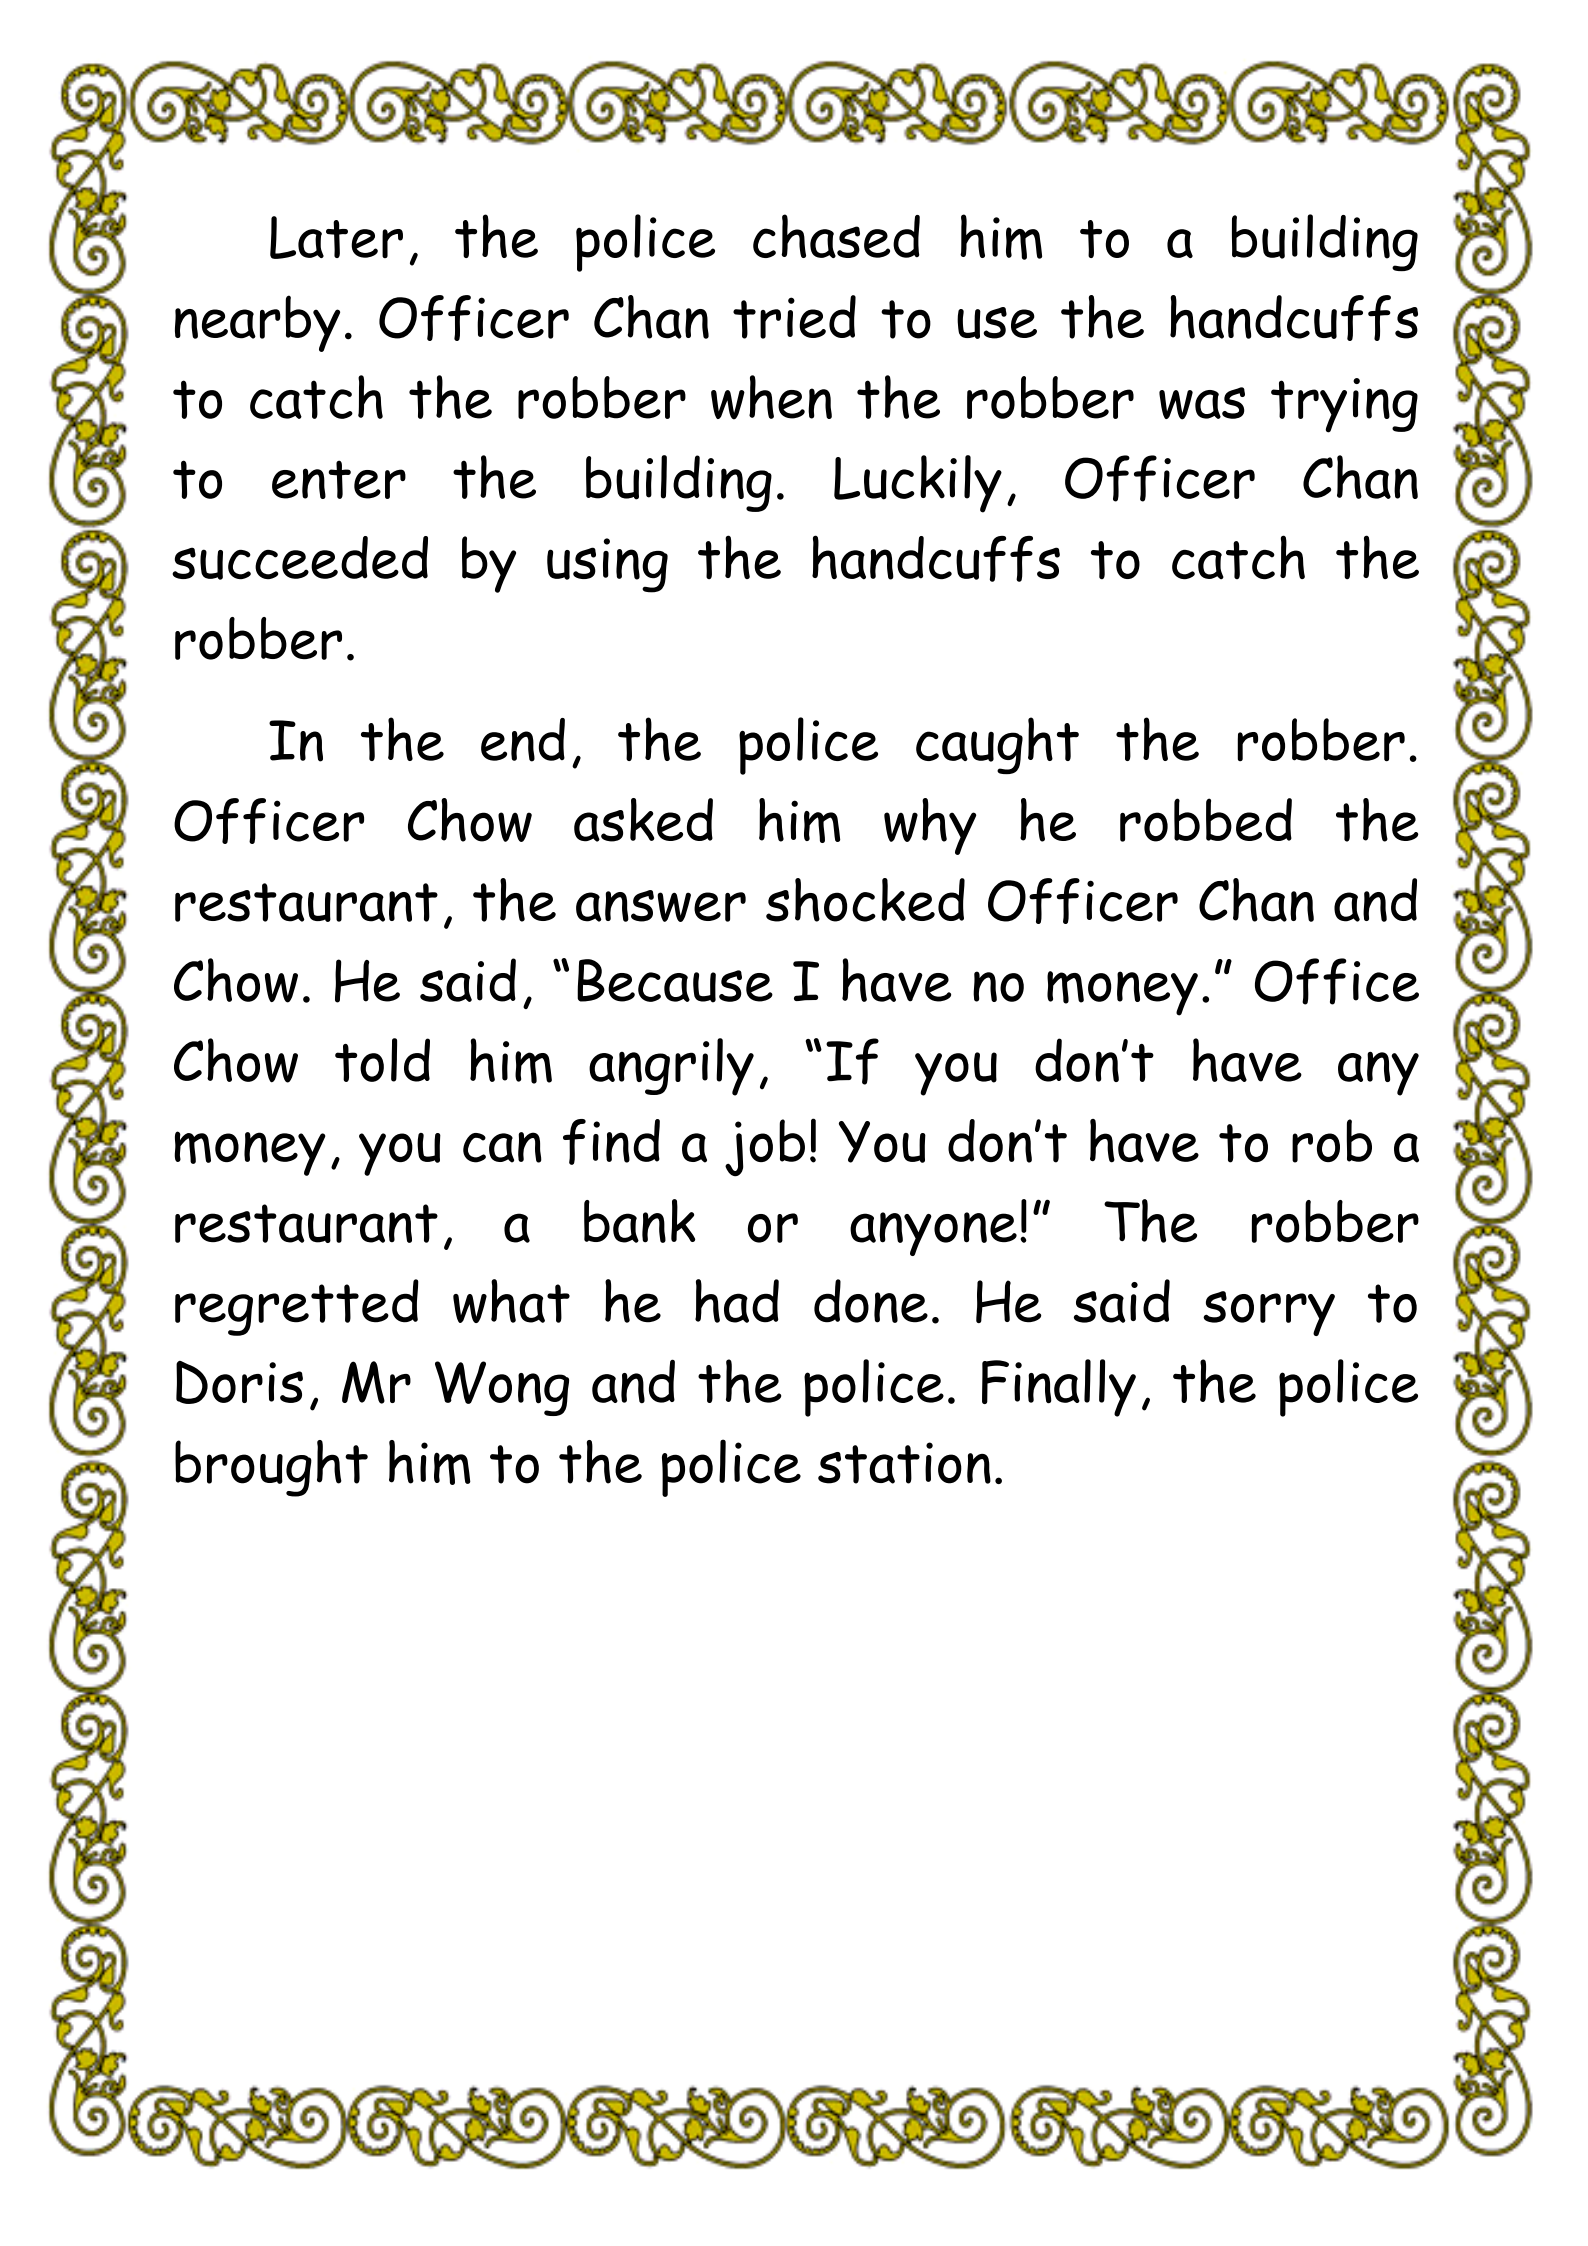

It is useful because it can help remind us of some important things. It can keep our notes neat and tidy too! You can pin some messages on the noticeboard. It is made of recycled materials. It is very cheap. It is easy to make. Try to make it when you are free at home. It is fun!

5R (18) Lui Carin

A Robbery

Last Thursday evening, there was a robbery at the Moon Restaurant at 7:45 p.m. It was a very quiet evening. There were no customers in the restaurant. Doris, the cashier, was very bored. Suddenly, something bad happened. A robber took a knife and pointed it to Doris when she was talking on the phone. He shouted loudly, "Give me the money!" Doris felt scared so she gave the money to the robber.

Mr Wong, the manager of the restaurant was worried and nervous. He set off the alarm to inform the police when the robber was putting the money into his bag. The robber saw the police so he grabbed his bag quickly and escaped. He was riding on his motorbike when the police yelled, "Stop! Robber!" Mr Wong told the police, "He got all of our money! Please help me to catch him!" Then the policemen replied, "Please calm down. We'll catch the robber!"

Later, the police chased him to a building nearby. Officer Chan tried to use the handcuffs to catch the robber when the robber was trying to enter the building. Luckily, Officer Chan succeeded by using the handcuffs to catch the robber.

In the end, the police caught the robber. Officer Chow asked him why he robbed the restaurant, the answer shocked Officer Chan and Chow. He said, "Because I have no money." Office Chow told him angrily, "If you don't have any money, you can find a job! You don't have to rob a restaurant, a bank or anyone!" The robber regretted what he had done. He said sorry to Doris, Mr Wong and the police. Finally, the police brought him to the police station.