Helping Out

Mrs Chan has two children, Ken and Pam. Ken is lazy and rude. He watches the television all day and all night. 'Ken, can you please wash the dishes?' says Mum. 'No! No! No!' shouts Ken. Pam is untidy. She reads a book and plays all day and all night.

One day Mrs Chan is sick. She cannot do the housework. The house is messy. The floor is dirty. The clothes are on the sofa. But the children still aren't helping.

Another day goes by. The children finally help because the house is too messy. 'Let's help Mum by folding the clothes and sweeping the floor,' says Ken. 'OK! Let's start now.' The home is clean again. 'Thank you, my helpful children,' says Mum.

My Dream Pet

My dream pet is a dog. It has long ears and a short tail. It has soft, brown fur. It is cuddly.

It eats pet food. It likes meat and bones best. It runs fast and it can catch the ball. It barks very loudly. It is sometimes noisy.

I want to have a dog because it is friendly. It likes to play with children. I can play with it every day.
