

A Happy Memory with my Family

I had my most unforgettable experience when I went on a trip to Seoul -- the capital of South Korea with my family.

Four years ago, my family took me to Seoul for vacation. We went there by plane. When we got there, it was already evening in Seoul. Therefore we searched on the Internet and we found a Korean hotpot restaurant for dinner. The food there was delicious! Then we went to check in at the hotel.

The next day, we had a buffet breakfast in the hotel. I got myself some beef, a bowl of rice and a packet of seaweed. Rice with seaweed was the best combination! While we were having breakfast, a waiter came up to my parents and said politely, 'Hi, would you like a bottle of wine? It is on the house.' My dad agreed and all of us drank some, except for me. After breakfast, my family were all drunk and slept like a log on their beds. Suddenly, I saw something as light as a feather and it was white. 'It is snowing!' I exclaimed surprisingly. I said, 'Mum, let's go out and take photos! It's snowing!' My mum immediately went out with me to see the beautiful view.

Seeing snow for the first time was an unforgettable experience. How lucky I was!

A Happy Memory with my Family

I remember during Christmas break of 2020; my whole family went on a cruise ship for the third time. It was the second time we went on a cruise ship during the pandemic so I knew all the dos and don'ts. This time we only spent three days so it was all such a rush.

Once we got on the ship, I immediately went to the room; it was just like a five-star hotel room. The time we arrived was already midnight so we went straight to dinner. The food was a fusion of Eastern and Western cuisine, which made it unique and delicious. After the amazing dinner, we went back to the room and took some rest.

The next day, we went to the top of the cruise ship where there was a water park. At that time, I was a very short kid (and sadly, I still am) so there were a few water slides I couldn't go on and they were epic. As a result, I missed out on a lot. Luckily, there were a few smaller slides that were exciting. Because of that, I still had fun. In the evening, we enjoyed the stage performance. The most memorable part was the singer, her voice was so angelic.

Next time, I want to travel to the U.K. with my family. We will probably go during the Chinese New Year, hopefully the pandemic will be gone by then.
