My Favourite Festival

My favourite festival is Chinese New Year. It's on the first day of the first month of the lunar calendar. It's also the most important festival in the Chinese calendar. People decorate their homes in red, because they believe that it will bring them good luck in the coming year.

This Lunar New Year's Eve, I went to the flower market in Victoria Park with my family. On the second day of the Lunar New Year, we saw the fireworks display in Victoria Harbour. I received red packets from my elders. I also visited my relatives and family members.

I like Chinese New Year very much.

My Favourite Festival

My favourite festival is Christmas. Christmas is on the twenty-fifth of December. It is a day to celebrate the birthday of Jesus. People sing carols, send cards and give presents to celebrate Christmas. They go to watch the Christmas illuminations in Central. They eat cookies and candy sticks. Eating cookies and candy sticks stands for joy, happiness and sharing. They also send cards to show love and care. Everybody likes this festival!
